The Christian Family

WITH CHRIST THROUGH THE YEAR

FOREWORD

Ariel 1952 depicts Monte Cassino School — a Christian Family — living with the Church in its glorious cycles of the year.

Beginning with the hushed expectancy of Advent, awaiting its Redeemer, we ascend the arduous Mount of Calvary to Easter, that great feast, the very pivot upon which our faith depends. The completion and fulfillment of the joyous feast of Pentecost, wherein the fruits of the redemption become operative in the Church, follows Easter and closes the ecclesiastical cycle.

His Excellency, The Most Reverend Eugene J. McGuinness, Bishop of Oklahoma City and Tulsa.

DEDICATION

The Christian family is sustained and strengthened through family prayer, through labor, love and by obedience to the commandments, through the Christian education of children and through a life lived in the spirit of the Church.

Of such families it can be said in truth, "Where there is prayer, there is faith; where there is faith, there is love; where there is love, there is peace; where there is peace, there is God; and where God is, there is no need nor grief. To these Monte Cassino families we dedicated Ariel 1952.

Sister Mary Edward, superior, principal and head of "family life" at Monte Cassino.

Sister Vincent, Sister Maura and Sister Petronilla put the finishing touches on the decorations for the annual Christmas banquet.

Below Sister Mary Louis and Sister Mary Jean set up a Nativity scene in preparation for the Christmas season.

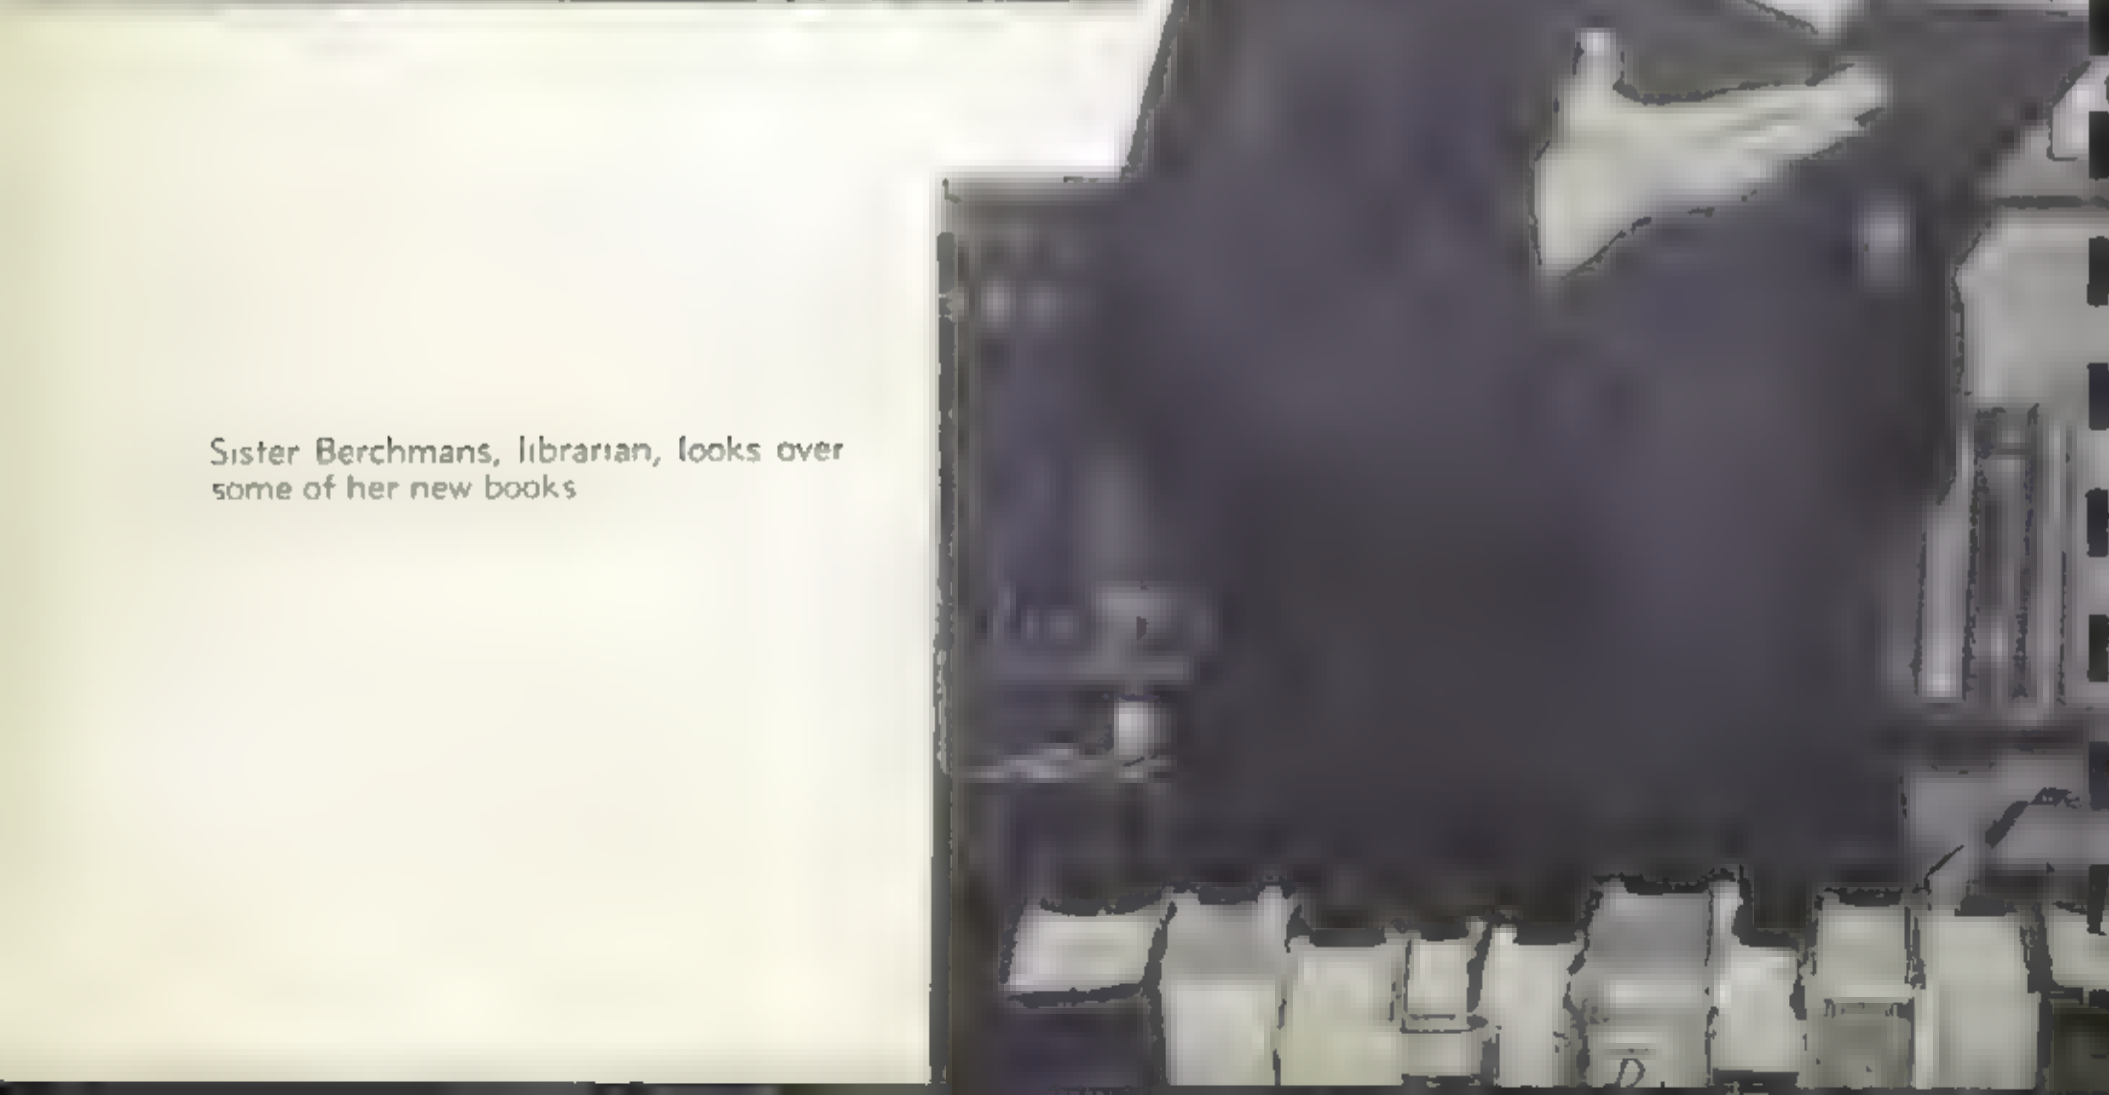

Sister Ignatia and Sister Mary Gertrude take great pride in caring for the altar. They are seen here getting ready for the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

Sister Mary Alice, Sister Mildred, and Sister Regina with a group of seniors and Father Edmund are practicing the propers for the Mass on Gaudete Sunday.

Sister Louise and Sister Suzanne enjoy a game of ping pong with two of the sophomores

Sister Berchmans, librarian, looks over some of her new books

Right are the lay members of Monte Cassino's faculty. Left to right are: Mrs. M. J. Bradford, athletic director; Mrs. Frances Haxer, piano instructor; Mrs. Robert Boyce Carson, voice and speech.

Sister Mary Edward and the student body welcome Mr. and Mrs. Pacek and their two children, Theresa and Elizabeth. Mr. and Mrs. Pacek came from Poland and have been adopted by Monte Cassino.

ADVENT

As the church year begins with Advent, the season wherein each family prepares for the coming of Christ, so the school life begins with the freshman year, a period of introduction into the scholastic, moral and social life of the school family.

In this section of Ariel '52, we introduce the freshman class and the events of our family life at Monte Cassino during the first period of our school year.

The Christmas Formal was quite an occasion especially for the tiny tots. From all appearances everybody was happy

EASTER

Easter, the great feast of all feasts, denotes victory. Christ has subjugated sin and death, Triumphant He has risen from the dead and has reopened to us the gate of eternity which was closed because of original sin. For this reason the Church changes the penitential chant of Lent to the glorious "Alleluia" singing. "Let us be glad and rejoice."

The sophomores and juniors have also won a victory. They have scaled the mountain of beginning hardships and non victoriously they have developed emotionally and scholastically and are now ready to run toward the completion of their venture.

This section of April 1952 features the sophomores and juniors in their period of joy with all the activities of the Easter Cycle of the Church Year.

FATHER-DAUGHTER BANQUET

The Father Daughter Banquet is an annual affair at Monte Cassino. At this dinner the sisters are hostess to the high school students and their fathers.

The troubadour, Martha Sumonka, gets the inspiration for her lute from the old manuscript which Sue Graham and Mary Sherry hold. Ramona Swan looks on in the background.

The French class studies the dress, customs, and habits of the peasants of Brittany.

PENTECOST

The culmination of the church year brings us the Holy Ghost, the Teacher, Leader, and Comforter. The Heavenly Sun that rose on Easter day now reaches its zenith where it warms and begets life. Now begins the speedy victory march of the church for the "gates of hell shall not prevail against her." The Holy Ghost imbues us with His Holy Spirit and sanctifies the fruits of our deeds.

The seniors have reached the summits of their high school days. Now imbued with the Christian principles which they have received, they are ready to enter upon the speedy victory march of Mother Church. They must work to bring to sufficient fruition in themselves and all whom they meet in life, God's gifts which they have received so abundantly.

MARY SHERRY

Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Sherry, reigned over the senior class with ability and dignity. Besides holding one of the highest scholastic averages in the class, she was active in all the school's functions. To create and organize ideas is just a part of her versatile personality. Her blonde hair and vivacious blue eyes will be missed as Mary leaves eleven years of Monte Cassino work behind her.

KNOWN FOR Her walk and talk.

MARY ELLEN FOX

Mary Ellen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Fox, came to Monte Cassino in her senior year from St. Mary's of the Woods, Ind. This quiet, dark-eyed senior served as secretary of the class and feature editor of the school paper. Her scholastic ability, her conscientiousness, and her friendly manner made Mary Ellen an inspiration to all who knew her.

We wish Mary Ellen all the luck and happiness she deserves, and that is a heaped-up measure
KNOWN FOR: "Her eyes."

PATRICIA FLUSCHE

Pat Flusche, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Flusche, Muskogee, has been at Monte Cassino three years. Pat may be classed as the "silent" type but when she does decide to talk her wit is quite entertaining. "Still water runs deep" describes this pretty blonde, blue-eyed senior.

Pat is a good tennis and basketball player. She will be remembered most for that slow methodic technique for arriving late for class.

KNOWN FOR: Slow easy manner.

SUE GRAHAM

This vivacious and scintillating senior Sue, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Graham, has been a student at Monte Cassino for the past two years and has always managed to keep things exciting. Sue is known and loved for her outspoken frankness softened by friendliness, her shining eyes and lively disposition. Her interests are varied and her talents are many, ranging from art to creative writing.

KNOWN FOR: Her Driving.

MARGARET ROURKE

Margaret, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Rourke, has attended Monte Cassino for 11 years. During her stay, Margaret has won many friends with her sincere and charming manners. She will be most remembered for her kind interest in her fellow students and for her "malice toward none." Her warm smile and friendly personality will long be remembered at M. C. We are sure that Margaret will take her place in the world as a perfect example of Christian womanhood.

KNOWN FOR "Say it again—I didn't get it"

SALLY VAN ANTWERP

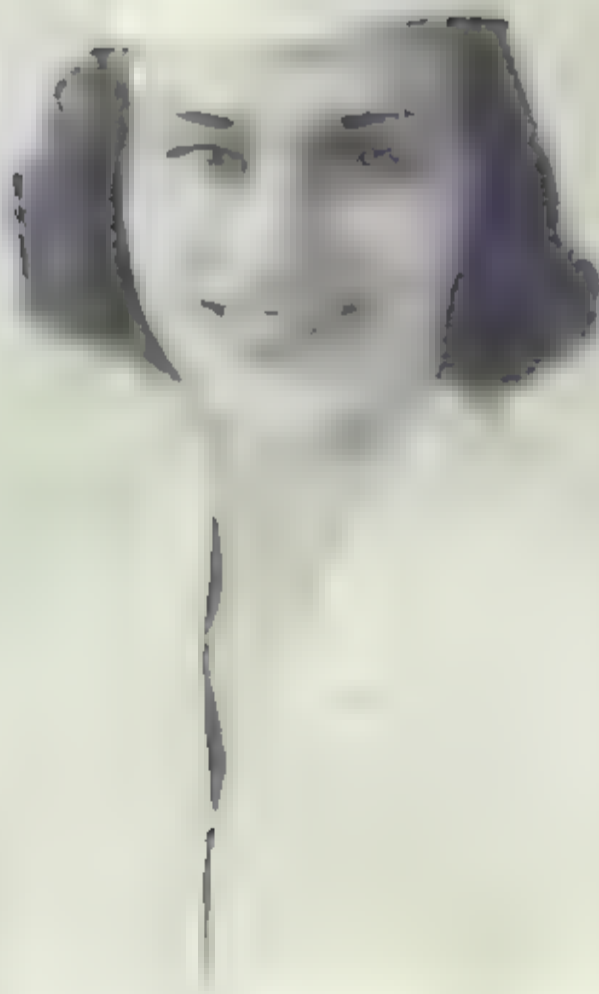

Sally Van Antwerp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Van Antwerp, Tulsa, has attended Monte Cassino since the fifth grade. She has entertained both students and parents with her beautiful voice. She is a friend to animals and has a great number of them. Her hobby is collecting post cards and stamps. Her ambition is to be an opera singer.

KNOWN FOR her "humanitarianism"

HELEN WATTS

Helen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Watts of Rockdale, Miss. High Christian principles, a warm southern heart, and a calm easy manner have endeared Helen to all who know her. She excels in mathematics and basketball and has distinguished herself by her athletic abilities. She has attended Monte Cassino for three years.

KNOWN FOR Southern Sleep.

MARTHA SUMONKA

Martha Sumonka, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Sumonka, transferred to Monte Cassino from Marquette in her freshman year. Her scholastic achievements throughout this time are too numerous to mention and are also hard to equal.

She has won many friends by her friendly, cheerful personality while her ability to lead and organize together with her keen interest in everything she undertakes classes her as a dependable person.

Martha is a diligent and zealous Y C S. worker. This year she holds the office of state secretary for the Y C S.

When Martha takes her place in the world she will surely be a competent Christian woman.

KNOWN FOR: Her interest in Bobs.

ROYCE ERICKSON

Royce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Erickson, has been at M. C. for two years. She has endeared herself to many by her friendly but serious manner and her spirit of cooperation. She is a constant source of entertainment with her perpetual "question-asking." Since childhood her ambition has been to be a nurse and she embarks on her training with our warmest wishes and fondest memories.

KNOWN FOR: Her perpetual "Interrogations"

To a good girl who, fulfills all the requirements of a "friend" we have had the best of times together, and we will have this summer. You might be a little snooty, but that is not all that counts. I sure had a good time at the farm. You are one of the prettiest girls I ever met. Do you remember the Kassis King (Peter Dawson), you must say we had our times, and our best times too. Are you still counting the seconds? I am. Oh this don't have any song for us and on it's thinking of some good ones.
